-ADOS: Welcome to sunny day at Harvard! Whoo!

Caroline: Introductory speech… insert joke about transformative experiences Our story begins with wizard and witches going back to Hogwarts…

-Going Back to Hogwarts: Literally just going to Hogvard ("WELCOOOOOOOOOOOOME all of you to HARVARD")

Shai: Wellllll shoot! Harvard?!

Ade: What do we do now? We'll get in so much trouble if The Ministry of Magic finds out that we showed up at a Muggle school!

Jesse?: Let's just make the best of it? And see if we can find some friends here at Harvard?

-Waving Through A Window: Sad wizards sing about not knowing people @ Harvard

Akash: Hey friends! So, I just heard this amazing speech! It was so inspiring… I think I know how we can make friends here at Harvard!

Adam: Really? How?

Akash: Well, this quality guy named Rakesh was giving a speech and he kept talking about transformative experiences!

Alki: Transformative experiences?

Quinn: As in, like, transfiguration?

Adam: Must be! What else could he be talking about?!

Laura: Wow! If we cast a transfiguration spell, I'll bet we'll become the most popular kids at Harvard!

Michael: Let's do it!!!

All: CHAUCERIFICUS!

-Partner in Crime: Friends make friends :)

Zac: Wow! I've never had a Muggle friend before! This is great!

Caroline: What the heck's a Muggle?

Zac: OH! Sorry, we're in America...I guess I mean a "No-Maj"!

Caroline: What the heck's a No-Maj?!?!

Zac: Oh ummmmm don't worry about it! I'm just happy to have a partner in crime!

Meg: Did somebody say… CRIME?

-Dynamic Duet: Did somebody say CRIIIIIIME?

BBB: AHHHHHHHH!

Meg: What's wrong?!?!

Ben: It's Caroline! She's spontaneously turned into a travel mug!

All: WHAT?! Gasps

Cassia: Awwww! This is stressful! I want to return to simpler pleasures!

-Do You Want to Build A Snowman? Newbies being cute and finding friends at HARVARD, not Hogwarts ("Please- I know you're in there-" speaking to inanimate objects)

Ade: Good thing we can all be wizarding friends forever and ever!

Jhanelle: And now we get to introduce you to one of our favorite Harvard traditions… Housing Day!

Amy: Oh, no, we already have houses! Go Hufflepuff!

Harvard students laugh and shake their heads Hahaha. Silly wizards.

-When You're In Adams: Housing day occurs (go pfoho)

Kimmie: Well, it's great that you all have houses now. But what are we supposed to do about the transforming students?

Roberto: Yeah! I mean, just look at Meg! She's an egg! A Meg egg. A Megg.

Lily: I know some scientists who might be able to help us out?

Shai: Hello! I am here to help!

Hooray!

Lily: See? They can fix our problems!

All evil scientists: Little do they know, we're actually here to take over Hogwarts! I mean, Harvard!

-Brand New Day: Evil scientists with ulterior motives are consulted to try to fix transformations, but they are actually EVIIIIIIL (they are secretly from Yale)

Laura: Thank goodness these scientists are here! The situation is becoming more and more dire! Poor Meg…

*Group looks sadly at an egg, fumbles egg, and drops in in a bucket

All: AHHHHHHH! Meeeeeeeg!

Meg: What?

Alki: Oh! Thank goodness! I'm so relieved that I feel like going on a shopping trip!

All: To the T!

-The Trolley Song: Getting on the T and going to Boston (going to buy quad formal clothes)CLANG CLANG CLANGis that what the kids are calling it these days :/

Kristen: Hey Julian! So, um, quad formal is coming up… and I was wondering if maybe you wanted to go to quad formal with me?

Julian: Well… I really want to… but we can't! I keep turning into a pineapple… I couldn't possibly go to quad formal with you knowing you might have to leave with a… a… pineapple!

Kristen: More like a FINE-apple… am I right? ;)

-Bad Idea: So, listen, so… quad formal is coming up? And, I know you're a wizard and all, but…
-"Sorry I was a pineapple for a little bit there" "More like a FINE-apple"

Michael: Ah, love is in the air…

Zac: Really makes you think about the most important things in life...

Michael: like the children we have… together

-Dear Theodosia: LUUUUUHV

BBB: It's time for the formal! All aboard the Quad-Yard Express!

-Put On Your Sunday Clothes: Returning to Harvard and the Quad (We're just happy about our Sunday clothes)

~INTERMISSION~

-Masquerade: Quad formal! But scary thing shows up!

Lights go out
Lights come back on and Julian is surrounded by the inanimate objects that he has accidentally turned us all into

Julian: Mwah ha ha! My plan has worked! My physics made the transformations worse and worse! Soon, me and my Yalie groupies will be able to surpass Harvard as the number one consultant factory in the nation!

Monica: Good thing those magic spells aren't strong enough to PERMANENTLY turn us into inanimate objects!

Kristen: Yeah, and even as an apple, I still managed to RAGE at quad formal!

Both: CAAAAASSSSIA!

Cassia: Guys, please be quiet! I have a midterm tomorrow

Kristen: NO! You have a midterm TODAY!

Monica: Yeah! It's one thirty already, it's morning!

Kristen: and what a lovely morning!

(Cassia: Go to bed…)

-Good Morning

Cassia: Wait, guys! This is a midterm, not a musical!

Monica: Well shoot… We're f- (Cut the lights)

-Totally Fucked

Michael: Well that sucked

Cassia: Yeah. Let's take a walk in the park.

*Put arms around each other so that people understand you are a couple

-The Next Ten Minutes: We don't know if we'll make it longer than 10 minutes before turning into inanimate objects! Ah! Let's go get married!

Monica: I've figured it out!

Caroline: No, I'VE figure it out!

Both: Julian is an EVIL YALIE!

Monica: You're not going to steal my moment of glory for solving this crime! You're always trying to steal my spotlight!

Caroline: You're always going to rain on my parade!

-Don't Rain on My Parade: Caroline and Monica both figure out that Julian is evil, so they fight for the glory of being the one to expose him!

Jhanelle: Turning into an inanimate object makes me feel so insignificant!

Roberto: Yeah! How are we supposed to accomplish anything when we're turnip into pens and apples and mugs all the time?

BBB: Don't give up hope, guys! We just have to believe in ourselves!

-Our Time: Yalies tell us we suck and that we'll only ever be inanimate objects and we're like "But we don't suck!"

Julian: I'm so confused! I want to take these people down, but they're so hopeful and inspiring! I'll have to battle this one out with my conscience...

-Confrontation: Michael vs. Julian! Michael is Julian's evil conscience?!?!?!?!

Caroline: Guys! I have something important to tell the group!

Monica: No, IIIII'M tellling them.

Julian: No, I have something to say first. It's my fault that you've all been turning into inanimate objects… I'm a Yalie! I was so jealous of these Harvard students and their cool wizard friends that I used conveniently-placed superconductor fission reactors to disturb the magic spells. Can you ever forgive me?

-It's Quiet Uptown: FORGIVENESS; S'okay that u were evil @Julian

BBB: Okay Yalies. We forgive you.

Jesse: Well, now that everything's back to normal here, it's time for the wizards to return to Hogwarts.

Cassia: We'll miss you all!

Why do I feel like...something has changed within me
Yeah, you're not an inanimate object anymore!

That too! But

-For Good: Bye wizard friends!

Batman: Well, now that everything's peachy at Harvard again, we're going to return to Hogwarts!

-The Mysterious Ticking Noise: The pipe bomb is a portkey!

Quinn: the pipe bomb was a portkey! We're back at Hogwarts!

Everyone: YAAAYYY!!!!

-Corner: Oh no, we r so lonely w/o wizard frenz, but at least we have Noteafriends!

Laura: Even though we're separated by magical time and space, we'll always keep the lessons the wizards taught us

Kimmie: Yeah! And whenever we need their help again, we'll just light this conveniently placed BATSIGNAL (Meg does shifty eyes)

Everyone: NANA-NANA-NANA-NANA

-HSM: Everyone left, but we've learned so much! Rock rock house rock

-Everyone wears their favorite outfit from the show for this

Can we project Rachel?
(Rachel would be so down)

“The pen is mightier than the fork” - Caroline
